PRICE TWO CENTS

PLANT OF WISCONSIN LIGHT AND POWER TO BE FORMALLY OFFERED TO CITY IN COUNCIL

FINAL AGREEMENT IS REACHED TODAY

CONSOLIDATED COMPANIES TO LEAVE RATES TO CITY

DANIEL S. McMILLAN IS PRES.

Old Rates of New Company to Be Undisturbed Unless by City or State Commission

As the result of an agreement entered into this morning between the officers of the La Crosse Gas & Electric company and the Wisconsin Light & Power company, the plant of the latter concern will be tendered for sale to the city of La Crosse at the next regular meeting which takes place on the second Friday in May.

This step is preliminary to the proposed consolidation of the two companies, and is required by the terms of the franchise of the new company. In case the city declines to purchase, the properties will promptly be united under a contract the terms of which have already been agreed to.

Officers Confirm It
This story was confirmed today by Mr. Charles H. Williams, general manager of the Wisconsin Light & Power company. Repeated attempts to reach Mr. D. S. McMillan, president of the La Crosse Gas & Electric company failed.

The name of the new company will be the La Crosse Gas & Electric company, legal consideration having been made necessary the retention of this name. The roster of officers of the consolidated company could not be learned today, but it is known that Mr. D. S. McMillan will be president, and street gossip has it that C. H. Williams, general manager of the Wisconsin Light & Power company, will hold that office with the combine.

Meetings Held
At a meeting this morning the stockholders of the new company authorized its board of directors to proceed with the transaction, and immediately thereafter the board of directors instructed the officers to enter into the necessary contract. Similar proceedings were had by the old company.

It was said by persons intimately acquainted with the deal that the rates of the Wisconsin Light & Power company will be the established rates unless they shall be changed by the city authorities or the proposed state light and power rate commission.

The Utopian Plan
The story exclusively published by THE TRIBUNE last evening, to the effect that a decidedly Utopian plan is being considered by the company was verified by Manager Williams today. The company will invite the mayor to become chairman of a body of aldermen or other city officials to confer with its own officers regarding the establishment of fair rates and conditions, and the matter will practically be left in the hands of the city representatives.

Sale to City Inprobable
It is not thought likely the city will give serious consideration to the offer of sale to it of the new plant. The law is such that, in order to operate it for commercial purposes, the city would also have to buy the plant of the old company and the Central electric. This would involve an expense carrying the city to three times its bonding limit, and the single plant is of too great capacity to be operated successfully for city purposes.

An Analogous Case
The application of the bonding limit laws in cases of this sort was tried out in Chicago in connection with the proposed municipal ownership of the street railways there, and the court held the law applied. The "Mueller certificates," commercial bonds issued by the city in excess of its bond limit, were to be sold to buy the traction properties. The supreme court of Illinois held the city could not legally issue them. It is said by eminent legal authority in Illinois that this is not good law, but it is the only case in point.

The exact date for the consolidation of management has not been set, but it is said it will be as soon as possible after the city council takes definite action. The consolidated properties will be owned exclusively by La Crosse capital.

EDWIN TATE IS AGAIN IN TOILS

LOYALTY OF COMMON LAW WIFE

BURGLAR PROPRIETOR SNARED

Man Who Blew Safe to Save Peoria Grafters Is Landed in Chicago

CHICAGO, Ill., April 27.—Edwin Tate, the burglar who was the cell mate of N. C. Dougherty, the convicted superintendent of schools of Peoria, was rearrested here this morning. Tate escaped here this morning, police where he was being held on suspicion of blowing the safe of the Peoria board of education and destroying papers necessary to further indictments against Dougherty, and making possible the conviction of Dougherty's associates.

Pawns Jewels for Tate
The most definite clue to the whereabouts of Tate was secured when the city detectives in the morning discovered Gertrude Tate, common law wife of the fugitive, in a respectable resort in Milwaukee. She is ill and penniless and had pawned her jewelry in an effort to lend him aid.

In this woman's possession were letters in the handwriting of Tate, plainly indicating that his escape from the hospital at Peoria had been planned by backers "with lots of money," and begging her to come to him and lend her aid. That she was in close touch with Tate and knew his whereabouts was evidenced by the fact that she received two telephone messages from Tate from Chicago earlier in the day. One of the messages was sent from the Lexington hotel. This clue was followed and resulted in his capture.

TAFT IN OHIO.

Reaches Cincinnati but Declines to Talk Politics.
CINCINNATI, April 27.—Secretary Taft arrived this morning to attend the reunion of the Yale club. He was met by his brother. When asked to talk he said: "I might later but now I have nothing to say."

Taft later talked about the affairs under his charge, but absolutely refused to discuss politics. He said he would not talk politics during his visit to Ohio. He said the American army will be withdrawn from Cuba by Sept. 1st, 1908, and that he will leave for the Philippines on Sept. 1st next, to be gone about eighty days.

HOLDS HIS OFFICE AGAINST COLLIER

"I AM HERE TO TAKE IT," IS THE
GREETING OF LATTER

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT NEXT

When City Clerk Sieger Refuses to File Qualification Papers
Aspirant Retires

"I am here to take the office," said Frank W. Collier, defeated candidate on the republican ticket for city clerk to City Clerk Joseph M. Sieger this morning.

"I can't see it that way," was the reply of the official who qualified and is now handling the city's affairs. Consequently Mr. Collier did not take possession, and Mr. Sieger is still pushing the pen back of the railing at the city hall.

Mr. Collier, accompanied by District Attorney Otto Bosshard, entered the city clerk's office about 11 o'clock this morning for the express purpose of being sworn into office. Mr. Sieger objected and the gentleman, after leaving his oath, departed. He had taken the oath before Mr. Bosshard and this he wanted Mr. Sieger to file. Mr. Sieger replied that he would take it, but would not file it. In connection with the oath Mr. Collier filed a statement of his election expense, the statement showing that he had expended the sum of $80 during the campaign. City Clerk Sieger administered the oath for this, however, though service makes it appear as though Sieger is the recognized city clerk.

"I have done too much work since April 16 to get out of office now," stated Mr. Sieger. "I can't see where Mr. Collier has any claim to the office."

The next step of Mr. Collier in his contest for the office will likely be made in the circuit court. However, it does not appear that he can demand a recount of the ballots for the reason that all of them are not in existence, those of the Tenth ward having been burned. Whether charges of fraud will be made is a question.

SOUGHT CONVENTION

BUT PHOTOGRAPHERS DESIRED TO KEEP MEETING IN MILWAUKEE

W. A. Pryor has returned from Milwaukee where he has been attending the annual convention of the state photographers.

Mr. Pryor states that they had a very large convention, there being representatives from nearly every place in the state.

The chief business of the meeting being the election of officers and discussion on photography and how it could be improved.

There were also exhibitions of the work of different photographers throughout the state. These were criticised and suggestions were made by the different members.

The next convention will be held in Milwaukee. Strong effort was made to secure it for La Crosse, but Mr. Pryor says that the photographers in the east are in the majority and they prefer to keep it in their territory.

The date for the next convention will be announced later.

INSURANCE DENIED FORMER RESIDENT

COURT HOLDS FOR CATHOLIC
ORDER OF FORESTERS

Because Ed Norton Moved Away and Changed His Occupation After
It Was Issued

Members of the La Crosse Catholic Order of Foresters have just received notice of a decision which will not only prove of interest to Foresters, but to all secret societies. This is a decision by Judge Bollinger of Iowa, in the case of Norton vs. the Catholic Order of Foresters.

Ed Norton of Clinton, Ia., was a brakeman on the Northwestern road, formerly running out of La Crosse. At the time he joined the Foresters he was at Clinton, Ia. He subsequently went to California where he engaged in switching and was killed while in the discharge of such duties, July 18, 1906.

On January 1, 1904, the Foresters passed a by-law, placing switchmen on the list of prohibited occupations, but Norton continued to pay his dues up to the time of his death.

The order refused to pay his insurance, his policy being for $3,000, and set up a defense that he having changed to a prohibitive occupation could not recover.

The case was tried in Clinton last fall, before Judge Jackson, the jury finding for the plaintiff, but a new trial was immediately granted by Judge Jackson.

The case then came up before Judge Bollinger, a jury being waived, and after taking the case under advisement for several weeks, the judge has decided in favor of the order.

GREAT DOCK FALLS TO BURY SCORES

B. & O. STRUCTURE IS WRECKED WITH LOSS OF LIFE.

Without Warning Mighty Building
Plunges Into Sea With Human Freight.

BALTIMORE, April 27.—The new pier of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, which has been in course of construction, collapsed this morning, burying about twenty-five men.

Bodies Recovered.
By noon four bodies had been recovered. A steamer at a nearby pier was lifted eight feet by the upheaval caused by the collapse. It is estimated the dead and injured will number from fifty to seventy-five people.

No Warning Given.
Sixteen injured have been taken to a hospital, some of them fatally hurt. From forty to fifty workmen went down with the structure and it seems certain they are beneath the water dead. Rescuers are working to clear the wreckage and get at the bodies. The pier is being built for the joint use of the B. & O. and the North German Lloyd Steamship company. It is supposed the materials were too heavy for the mud site and the piles did not support the weight because they were not sunk deep enough into the bed rock. The accident came without the slightest warning.

IN FEW DAYS

Congressman John J. Esch, who is senatorial candidate, returned this morning from Madison.

Judge Ray S. Reid, Senator Thomas Morris and Postmaster Tschanner returned last night.

"The senatorial situation remains about the same," said Mr. Esch. "Of course we can not predict exactly when the break will come, but there is a good deal of restlessness in some of the camps and the break will start some time next week. We expect to gain several votes during the week and when the break comes we will get votes from most of the other camps."

Doctor Miller and V. S. Keppel will stay over Sunday in Madison.

Collector

(By F. L. Holmes.)
MADISON, Wis., April 27.—(Special.)—A truce until Monday has been declared in the senatorial contest. The legislature will reconvene on Monday evening and in order to carry out the spirit of the law, arrangements have been made so that one ballot will be cast for each candidate Monday noon.

This will give no one an advantage. But the war will begin again Monday night when the caucus is called at 9 o'clock. The switch of Assemblyman Goldworthy to Esch has made many here believe that additional changes are at hand.

The Monahan "Succession"
The office of collector of internal revenue for the Madison district will be transferred May 1 from James E. Monahan to Frank R. Bentley. Mr. Bentley was appointed last winter, but has taken some time to arrange for his bond and other details of the transfer.

MURRAY TO RESIGN STATE PRESIDENCY

HOT FIGHT PRECIPITATED BY STATE SECRETARY ROCK

THREATEN TO SUSPEND LOCAL

At Meeting of Directors Rock Is Told La Crosse Wants to Be Suspended

Secretary A. T. Rock of the Wisconsin State Retail Grocers' association, residing at Superior, has advised the La Crosse Retail Grocers' association that if the allotment due from them to the state treasury of the organization is not paid prior to May 1, he will suspend the La Crosse organization from the central body. The La Crosse association has reasons for not having paid the annual dues, and has informed the state secretary that it will pay only upon courteous performance of an official duty the doing of which was requested by Secretary Wensole, and was declined. A second request was also declined, and the suggestion from Mr. Rock that he would "tell the La Crosse society something its members would not like to hear," finally took the form of the threat to suspend.

At a meeting Thursday night held at the offices of Financial Secretary Harry Taggart, Corresponding Secretary Wensole was directed to make a final request for the information which has become the bone of contention. If it is not forthcoming, and if Secretary Rock proceeds with the suspension, the La Crosse society will accept it without protest, although its officers deny the authority of Mr. Rock to suspend a local organization.

Want to Be Suspended

It is understood that Mr. Wensole's letter to Mr. Rock, mailed today, advised that official that it was the consensus of the meeting held the night before that the La Crosse society desires to be suspended, but that the action of the secretary in taking this position is subject to ratification at the monthly meeting next Tuesday.

The Trouble

When time for paying the annual dues to the state treasury of the federation came around this year, the La Crosse officers decided to inquire what other locals were keeping up their affiliation and dues. A letter requesting this information received scant courtesy, and thereupon the present controversy was precipitated.

It was said today on what seems unimpeachable authority that in case the threatened suspension is not made by Mr. Rock, three radical steps will be taken, as follows:

President James B. Murray, of the La Crosse association, will resign his office as president of the state organization.

The La Crosse retail grocers association will withdraw from the state federation of which Mr. Rock is secretary.

A movement will be started by the La Crosse grocers' association for the formation of a new federation to be known as the Western Wisconsin Retail Grocers' association.

This step may mean the dissolution of the state association. The organization was founded through the efforts of members of the La Crosse local. It was for a time effective, but there is little evidence of successful activity on the part of the organization at the present time.

Murray Not Talking

James B. Murray, when seen today about the matter, denied that he had resigned, but declined to admit or deny the statement that he contemplated doing so. Neither would he deny that the move mentioned above was seriously contemplated. He admitted that a serious controversy had arisen, and said: "We are not afraid of the cars, but no final action has been taken."

Taggart Seeks Silence

Secretary Harry Taggart declined to discuss the matter further than to say a disagreement has arisen and trouble may be brewing. "I think only harm can come from talking about it in public," he said.

A Strong Institution

Stronger today than it has been at any previous time, and the action in this case will not, it is said, in any way affect its influence and value.

Boston, 4; Brooklyn, 2.—Brooklyn was again defeated by Boston yesterday, 4 to 2. Rucker pitched well for six innings, but in the seventh the visitors batted him out of the box. Bates of the Boston team made a big start for the season's record by making a single, a double, a triple and a home run out of five times at bat. New York, 5; Philadelphia, 4.—Philadelphia won today's game by a score of 5 to 4. The home players being unable to hit Dygert. The run was scored by Seybold, who, with two strikes, called, swung at a wild pitch, went to second on a base on balls, to third on an out, and reached the plate on Wagner's error. Manager Mack of the Philadelphia team today suspended Pitcher Waddell for thirty days for refusing to obey the rules of the club. Score: Philadelphia.....000000010-1 Boston.....000000000-0

NEW YORK, April 27.—The New York Americans shut out Washington today easily. Brockett pitched a strong game and kept hits scattered. Keefe pitched the ninth inning after a shower had made the ball wet. Score: Washington.....000000000-0 New York.....100100020-4

DETROIT, Mich., April 27.—Detroit won on base running today of its tallies being due to steals to the plate. Howell was hit hard, but pitched at his best when in tight places. Star Battery Fails to Shine While
"Pink's" Men Put Up a Fine
Exhibition All Through(By Lefty.)
Well, fans, they opened that box of sorrow, took off the lid and rubbed it in until it smarted, spread it on until there wasn't a spot left uncovered. The Champs went after those Onalaskians like a bunch of hungry Igorrotes going after a dog stew, and when the mixup had cleared ten of "Pink's" stalwarts had crossed the pan and not a "Laskian" had reached farther than the second station.

It didn't take them long to get started either, one run being pumped out in the first, followed by another in the second and then a flock of three in the third. For one round they rested and then came back with two, waited this time for another breathing spell and then, just to show no ill feelings existed, closed the melee with a brace of three more. Of course all of these tallies didn't come through long swats or bunched hits, but the Champs hit often enough and far enough to let the fans see they have the right grip on the stick. At times the "Laskians" were a little wobbly, but on the whole put up a good exhibition for independents. If the report hadn't become circulated to the effect that the champs were going to be up against a great aggregation it wouldn't have been so had for the visitors, but in view of this fact it was necessary for them to stand a little "josh." And that battery you have heard talked about, it must be said that in all probability it will be able to do some fine work against the amateur clubs, and Nutting, the pitcher, may develop into a first rate leaguer as he appears to have good curves and speed and is a big fellow. The Champs were able to lay against him yesterday for nine safe ones, one a three sacker by Medwetzky, and the other a two sacker by Konetchy. The only home run was made by Konetchy's head in a mad endeavor to catch a man going to first.

Three pitchers were worked, each gathering in some glory. But five measly hits were allowed and scattered in as many innings. Nelson opened up the game and allowed but two hits in the four innings he pitched. His control was perfect. Bailles followed and worked until the seventh, giving but one hit and passing no one. Jones finished from here, allowing two hits and one pass.

Lethbridge today and tomorrow. That game yesterday had the earmarks of another pennant.

Umpire Hundt's decisions appeared to be satisfactory. Only once or twice were they displeasing to Nutting, the Onalaska pitcher, and he would show his disgust by swapping the ball from one hand to the other. Konetchy was hit on the fingers once. He trotted down to first saying "rats," and a few other things.

The ingratitude of some people is simply awful. Those Laskie young ladies were admitted free, and then they roasted the champs. Shame on you, girls.

Medwetzky and Konetchy, they hit the ball hard, way outsky to the fence.

There were something like forty ball players in the park during the game, the two contesting teams and

HEAR FATHER QUILL.

Nothing in the development of the modern judiciary system is attracting so much attention as the "juvenile courts." They had their inception in the great cities where congested population is breeding a race of "bad boys," boys who are bad because lacking the opportunity or the incentive to do good and piteously surrounded with invitations to "go wrong."

Although the subject has been discussed here at times, La Crosse has not thought itself large enough nor incorrigible enough to require a juvenile court. This may be a mistake. The juvenile court is invaluable as furnishing a means of directing the young mind in the right direction before it attains the "case-hardened" defiance of the indelibly criminal. These courts are coming. It is likely that one day they will be as common and will be regarded as just as indispensable as the courts of probate.

In La Crosse, of late, there has been much talk of elevation of society in one way and another. Most of this talk and effort has gone wrong, because it was devoted to eliminating the effect without removing the cause. The people of this city should appreciate a lesson in method taught by one who has had long experience. The Rev. Father Quill is exactly the man to do this. He will not bore his hearers. He is not a lecturer. He takes you down among the urchins of the street and makes you see them through the eyes of one of them. Their emotions, their temptations, their fun, their tears, their slang, the very souls and dirty faces of these fellows of the gutter he lays bare before you in an open book. And with all the pathos of it, you smile—a kindly smile. And with all the sin of it, you say with Father Quill, "Our boys are good boys." He is inimitable. He talks sense. He does not carp, he does not moralize from a pedestal.

For three years Father Quill has sat beside the judge in a Chicago juvenile court. He has made the reclamation of the waifs and impoverished children of that metropolis his life work. He knows them, he understands them. He realizes that the way to make the world better is to have better men and women in it, and that the way to have better men and women is to bring up the children better. When he comes here on May 6, the theater should be packed to receive him.

"RAILROADING" MEN TO HEAVEN

There are differences of opinion about all things, and when the opinions ARE opinions and not prejudices or selfish wishes, their very variety does good.

La Crosse tried to get the celebrated evangelist, "Billy" Sunday, to deliver a series of sermons here. He didn't come. Out in Minnesota he held a revival at Austin, and here is what the editor of the Adams (a near-by town) Review says about him:

"We had intended having an article of some length this week in regard to W. A. Sunday and his work in Austin, but a lack of space forbids anything of much length. What The Review has said about him has been proven in Austin the past week. He tells lots of truth, uses all kinds of slang, good, bad and indifferent, is a religious grifter and is daily roasting Austin's penurious rich because they didn't come down with the coin. The meetings are conducted on a vaudeville show plan—two pianos, an orchestra of eight or ten pieces, a chorus of 100 voices, with Sunday as a singer, acrobat and general star performer. He has made the Austin ministers taking part, look like 30c. In his sermons he speaks much truth, but no more than was ever spoken by Bob Ingersoll, Tom Paine, Henry Ward Beecher, or any of the noted orators of Christianity or infidelity. They told the truth in all things up to a belief or disbelief in the Deity, did world's of good to mankind without resorting to slang, coarseness and acrobatic feats of oratory. We do not believe there is much lasting religion, and no Christianity at all, in Sunday's sensational brand and we dare say that nine-tenths of the people first go to hear him out of curiosity, and under the novelty of the excitement temporary believe that they have become religious. You find lots of religious people among Sunday's converts but mighty few genuine Christians. Christians are not made in the Sunday reform factory and furthermore you can't make a Christian by slangy expressions, even though backed by truth, pyrotechnic oratory or circus gymnastics. We give just one Austin opinion of W. A. Sunday and that opinion is from an orthodox minister of the gospel, whose reputation as a citizen and minister is unquestioned. We have fought this man politically and will possibly continue to do so, but as a man whose ministerial word you can absolutely believe in, no one will dispute the statement. This opinion of W. A. Sunday is from Rev. C. D. Belden, editor of the Mower County Transcript and is published in his paper this week. Mr. Belden says:

"His denunciations were plain and stern and he could descend from the heights of oratory to the commonest slangy expressions, like an acrobat."

"Sunday tells his audience that if he says anything that shocks their sensibilities to get out, evidently making a tacit admission that he does give utterances to unwarranted remarks. Some people say he does not do this—that the public would not stand for it, but as long as the same people will stand for female minstrel that they will not stand for patronizing something in a form of religious depravity, sensationalism or whatever you have a mind to call it. The fault lies with the ministry of today even more than it does with the people. Instead of genuine gospel sermons nowadays by the modern ministry we are treated to a classical, scientific essay on 'The Physical or Psychological Causes of Jonah's Retaining Life in the Whale's Belly' or a musty lecture . . . all of them being uninteresting, inane. The modern ministry having lost its hold on the public in order to relieve the lost ground resorts to the opposite extreme and imports talent to attract the public—talent that is a master of slangy expressions, pyrotechnic utterances and sensationalism."

"At that day the pulpit is about the only place we expect to find wholesome cleanliness, purity and gospel truth, but you will not find such things in the Sunday meetings. No genuine Christian will resort to slang or foul insinuation to 'clinch a point' or 'drive home a truth.' The honest, conscientious, true Christian does not have to resort to such method to save souls."

THE TRIBUNE cannot agree with this more vigorous than pious editor in all things. It is not willing to take it for granted that Rev. Sunday is a grafter. Any of us may be grafters, but none can know whether any other is or is not a grafter. Each individual can answer that question about himself, but insincerity is a mote no man can positively detect in another's eye. If Mr. Sunday IS a grafter, he is a very bad man. That he probably is not is attested by his continued success. At least, he is entitled to be considered a sincere Christian until proven to be something else.

Nor is the tone of the editorial such as to warrant the opinion that the Sunday revivals was attempted. Charging the use of slang, for instance, in terms themselves more slangy than genteel, is not convincing. It almost looks as though the effort was intended to provoke a grin rather than to teach a lesson. But one idea in this editor's comment will have its disciples everywhere. It is the contention that lasting Christianity seldom comes from revival sermons. The appeal is made to the emotions. The intellect is not called into play. Few people, we believe, are "railroaded" to heaven by the uproar of a hypnotic preacher and the "rush act" of religious zealots. True piety comes from the harmonious agreement of mind and soul after deliberate analysis.

However, the revival is not a lost effort. It inspires many vows that are followed by many back-slidings. But it serves its purpose. Its temporary influence frequently draws men from the recklessness of disorderly lives into the chastening atmosphere of the church, and it is there, under beautiful influences and surrounded by the mellowing atmosphere of true piety and the uplifting power of intelligent Christianity, that the real conversion takes place.

AN OLD NEIGHBOR OF OURS

Just a friendly bit of humor and approval from Brother Candrian in yesterday's Abend Stern:

"The opening, or rather, the dedication, of the Tribune, which was held last Friday, in the form of a program which entertained throngs of people, was a grand success. The Tribune distributed among its guests a large number of pretty red carnations as souvenirs, but retained the flower girls, as they had notified all young men previously."

That is a jolly little jolly, and is very like Publisher Candrian. Health is his hobby, and in the scientific study of how to gain and retain it he has become so abundantly possessed of it that good will and good humor are emitted in spontaneous bubbles from his being. THE TRIBUNE'S regard for Mr. Candrian is based upon something even more substantial than his good fellowship. The one regret of leaving the old quarters was leaving with them the old neighbor, ever ready to extend a helping hand, always solicitous of the welfare of those about him, and possessed of a public spirited regard for popular interests that raises the courtesies he so freely extended beyond the boundary line of mere accommodation into the higher realm of public duty. There were early days during which THE TRIBUNE ran by the grace of Mr. Candrian's courtesy. It hopes not to again impose upon him, but those who went through the old struggle will not soon forget the kindly gentleman whose humanity and humor daily added to the joy of living and whose scholarly accomplishments were an unfailing source of profitable entertainment.

A SCHURZ STORY OF LINCOLN

(McClure's Magazine.)

One of the many foreigners who sought my introduction was a young German count whose identity was vouchsafed by a member of the Prussian legation. He had a long row of ancestors whom he traced back for several hundred years. He was greatly impressed with the importance of this fact and thought it would weigh heavily in securing him a position in our army. If he could only have an "audience" with the president and lay his case before him, he believed, the result could not be doubtful. He pursued me so ardently with the request for a personal introduction to Mr. Lincoln, that at last I succumbed and promised to introduce him if the president permitted. The president did permit. The count spoke English moderately well and in his ingenious way he at once explained to Mr. Lincoln how high the nobility of his family was, and that they had been counts so-and-so many centuries. "Well," said Mr. Lincoln, interrupting him, "that need not trouble you. That will not be in your way, if you behave yourself as a soldier." The poor count looked puzzled, and when the audience was over he asked me what in the world the president could have meant by so strange a remark.

KING OF SPAIN'S THRONE

(New York Globe.)

The throne room of Spain, which the civilized world is now watching with more than usual interest, out-rides in splendor any in Europe. The ancient throne stands in the apartment known as the Room of Ambassadors. The decorations of this apartment include vast crystal chandeliers, huge tables inlaid with precious marbles, vast plate glass mirrors, gildings, rich hangings—and above all the painted ceiling representing the long line of Spanish kings, in the various picturesque costumes of the provinces. Here Spanish kings receive on state occasions and here, too, their bodies lie in state after death. The throne is of rich velvet, embroidered. Around it are grouped four great silver lions with their heads turned away as if guarding the occupant. Four broad steps lead up to the throne from the polished floor of the room and the crimson covered footstool is in itself a work of art.

In this room have been gathered for ages curios and gems from Spanish possessions the world over, at a time when Spain was mistress of the world. And here in front of the throne hang chandeliers of rock crystal, which have for generations been the envy of other European rulers.

SYMPATHY

(Philadelphia Ledger.)

The legislature had decided to put a tax of 3 cents on a ton of coal. "Dear, dear," said the coal baron, sympathetically, "won't those radicals ever get through clinching the poor consumer?" Thereupon he marked the price up 10 cents a ton, naturally charging the extra 7 cents for his trouble.

FEAR BLACK HAND DEATH

WILKESBARRE, Pa., April 27.—The effort which District Attorney Salsburg feared in the trial of the thirteen Black Hand and Mafia members here has been attempted, he discovered. Witnesses for the prosecution have been intimidated in an effort to prevent them testifying against the prisoners.

This was apparent when Dominick Samanca and his wife appeared on the stand, white and trembling, and hardly able to speak above a whisper, while they could not identify one of the prisoners who exacted tribute from them, although they had lived near him for some time. Suspecting what had happened, Salsburg had the two taken before him after the session and when he promised them protection they admitted that their lives had been threatened. They also gave the names of two of the men who made the threats last night, and detectives are now searching for them.

SPECTACULAR FIRE IN DITCH.

ALLEGHENY, Pa., April 27.—Danger from burning land running through the streets was successfully averted by firemen here when a large warehouse caught fire, and the blazing grease started in streams from the building and threatened to spread the fire to other structures.

The fire started in the William Zoeller Packing company plant. A warehouse, in which were stored 500,000 pounds of lard, caught fire. The interior of the building soon became a furnace. Spouting from crevices, doors and windows, streams of hot grease ran into a sort of trench hurriedly dug to prevent the blazing fluid from spreading. Soon after the fire was discovered and while thousands of spectators were gathered in the vicinity, a dozen large ammonia tanks exploded. There was a panic but no one was injured. The loss was $300,000.

WILL SUE BERESFORD ESTATE.

EL PASO, Tex., April 27.—It is stated by her attorney today that Flora Wolff, the negro known as the common law wife of Lord D. F. Beresford, will bring suit against his estate for one-half, or over $500,000. The suit will be brought both in Mexico and in this state.

JUST LIFE

"Anna Nias"

Mrs. John H. Hager tells a fish story that would admit her to membership in any Ananias fish club on earth only for the fact that it is true. She was fishing from the bridge just this side of Verhan's mill on Yellow river Friday. She hooked a big fish and in trying to land him her line broke and he disappeared. When John joined her she told him her tale of woe, but he was incredulous and intimated that she had lost her line on a snag. In a short time they noticed a fish jumping and splashing in the water a short distance up the stream. John went over there to see if he would bite when he discovered a line protruding from his mouth and tangled in a snag near the shore. He reached down and pulled out a fourteen inch rainbow trout. Who caught the fish?—Lansing Journal.

a bow of white tulle or stock bow of soft satin ribbon.

Fascinating are the little square theater purses shaped like miniature suit cases in tinted leather. They contain we opera glasses, folded fan, mirror and powder puff.

Plaid belts make a smart addition to a silk blouse when it is worn with a short skirted suit. They are especially attractive with harness buckles.

Hats are actually worn on the head, not miles above it, and the elaborate cachepagne of tulle and ribbon is no more.

The "jumper" frock looks very nice with a pompadour ribbon sash, its short sleeves and the line of its bodice outlined with the same. The soft chine flowers are a pleasant change from the everlasting embroidery and contrast delightfully with the lace blouse worn with it.

The illustration shows a new corset cover to be worn by stout women with blouses. It is made of white jeans simply stitched and finished with a little frill of lace.

Moyer and Haywood Refuse to Get Into Controversy
BOISE, Idaho, April 27.—Moyer and Haywood, the accused Western Federation men, on advice of counsel, decline to talk of the president's latest letter declaring them to be "undesirable citizens." The attorneys declare they cannot, in the interests of their clients, permit them to become involved with the president of the United States and his friends in a newspaper controversy. Already, counsel declares, has their case suffered from too much agitation, and they will not, either for themselves or their clients, make any statement regarding the president's utterances.

An Art Sale.

Two young artists were talking the other day of the state of the market for their wares and the temptations which beset them to forsake their high ideals and hopes for the sake of making money. Both came to the conclusion that the prosperous year just closed had done very little in the way of encouraging art.

"I haven't painted a pot-boiler this year," said one. "Into everything I've done I've put my best efforts and my most conscientious work, and I haven't sold a thing."

"The other considered for a while and then said: 'Well, it's pretty bad, but it might be worse. You know Jones never paints anything but his best and I hear he made a good sale during the holidays.'"

Just then Jones happened to come in. "Jones," said the first speaker, "did you sell anything during the holidays?"

Jones' hesitation was manifest. "Yes," he said at last, "I sold my overcoat and my crush hat."—Philadelphia Record.

FRIDAY, THE 13th

By Thomas W. Lawson

SYNOPSIS.

CHAPTER I—Bob Brownley creates a panic in Wall street. He is a friend of Jim Randolph of Randolph & Randolph, bankers and brokers. Brownley and Randolph had gone to college together and entered the employ of Randolph's father at the close of college days. Brownley is a Virginian by birth. Beulah Sands, daughter of an old Virginia house, calls on Brownley and tells him her father has been practically ruined by the stock operations of Reinhart. She hopes to utilize her own money in Wall street in retrieving her father's fortunes before his condition becomes known, and asks for employment in the office that she may have an opportunity to better understand how her money is invested. She does not want it used in a purely Wall street gamble, but in the buying and selling of legitimate securities. Brownley agrees to help her, and falls in love with her.

CHAPTER II—Brownley plunges in avar stock. He uses the money of Miss Sands, his own and in addition is backed heavily by the Randolph millions. His coup seems successful, and he tells Miss Sands that she has cleared $1,000,000. But the market had not closed.

CHAPTER III—Barry Conant, head broker for Standard Oil and sugar interests, suddenly begins to sell "sugar."

In the midst of a panic he breaks the market and with his fall carries away the earnings and much of the capital of both Miss Sands and himself. A pretty love scene occurs between the two at the office when Bob attempts to tell her the terrible truth of his fall. Brownley takes her to "Venezia."

CHAPTER IV—Beulah and Bob become engaged. Randolph wants to loan her father the money to meet his obligations. She refuses. How is the money of Miss Sands, his own and in addition is backed heavily by the Randolph millions. His coup seems successful, and he tells Miss Sands that she has cleared $1,000,000. But the market had not closed.

CHAPTER V—The "bulls" toss sugar to record breaking point, and the "street" goes wild. Barry Conant, for the "system," pushes prices up and up, and a wonderful clean-up is promised when the exchange closes, Thursday, November 12. Sugar opens higher Friday morning, November 13. When the price had passed all bounds Brownley steps into the pit and begins to sell. He sells every share "the system" brokers will take, and pounds the price down and down until failures are of momentary occurrence, and "the system" has lost millions. He has made millions for Beulah Sands and her father. Brownley keeps out.

CHAPTER VI—Beulah Sands insists upon being assured that there is no dishonor connected with the money he has made for her, and he cannot honestly answer "no." He leaves her to think it out. When he returns he finds her staring at the glaring headlines of a newspaper extra announcing that her father, while temporarily insane, had killed his wife, his daughter and himself, and Beulah Sands had gone crazy.

CHAPTER VII—Bob Brownley marries Beulah, insane Beulah Sands, and takes her to Virginia. The sight of the old home does not restore her reason. He returns with her to New York and builds a palace for his bride, one floor of which is designed especially for her. He begins plunging on the "street" and adds millions to his now great fortune. He always opposes the "system." His every appearance on the floor of the exchange means panicky conditions. Time after time he has "the street" seemingly at his mercy, but relents before the great crash comes.

"Jim," he went on, when he saw I could not answer, "I guess you don't know where I can swap the yellow mud for balm of Gilead. I won't bother you with my troubles any longer. I will go up-town and see the little girl whose happiness Tom Reinhart needed in his business. I will go up and show her the pictures in this week's Collier's of the fine hospital for incurables that Reinhart has so generously and nobly built at a cost of two and a half millions! The little girl may think better of Reinhart when she knows that her father's money was put to such good use. Who knows but the great finance king may dedicate it as the 'Judge Lee Sands Home' and carve over the entrance a bas-relief of her father, mother, and sister with Hope, Faith, and Charity coming from the mouths of their hanging severed heads?"

Bob Brownley laughed a horrible ringing laugh as he uttered these awful words. Then he beat his hand down on my shoulders as he said in a hoarse voice: "Jim, but for you I should have had cramps in that jackal philanthropist's soul by now and in the souls of his kind. But never mind. He will keep; he will surely keep until I get to him. Every day he lives he will be fitter for the crimping. Within the short two years since he finished grilling Judge Sands' soul, he has put himself in better form to appreciate his reward. I see by the press that at last his aristocratic wife has gold-cured Newport of his habit of dating back the name Reinhart to her scullionhood, and it has taken her into the high-instep circle. I read the other day of his daughter's marriage to some English nob, and of the discovery of the ancient Reinhart family tree and crest with the mailed hand and two-edged dirk and the vulture rampant, and the motto, 'Who strikes in the back strikes often.'"

He left me with his laugh still ringing in my ears. I shuddered as I gazed under the old black-and-gold sign my uncle and my father had nailed over the office entrance in an age now dead, an age when Wall street men talked of honor and gold, not gold and more gold.

In telling my wife of the day's happenings I could not refrain from giving vent to the feelings that consumed me. "Kate, Bob will surely do something awful one of these days. I can see no hope for him. He grows more and more the madman as he broods over his horrible situation. The whole thing seems incredible to me. Never was a human being in such perpetual living purgatory—unlimited, absolute power on the one hand, unfathomable, never-cool-down hell on the other."

"Jim, how does he do what he does?" I cannot make out anything I have read or you have told me, how he creates those panics and makes all that money."

"No one has ever been able to figure it out," I answered. "I understand the stock business, but I cannot for the life of me see how he does it. He has none of the money powers in league with him, that's sure, for in the mood he has been in during the past two years it would be impossible for him to work with them, even if his salvation depended on it. The mention of any of the big 'System' men drives him to a fury. He has to-day made more money than any one man ever made in a day since the world began, and he had only commenced his work when he quit to please me. As I stand in the Exchange and watch him do it, it seems commonplace and simple. Afterward it is beyond my comprehension. At the gait he is going, the Rockefeller, Vanderbilt, and Gould fortunes combined will look tiny in comparison with the one he will have in a few years. It is beyond my power of figuring out, and it gives me a headache every time I try to see through it."

WISCONSIN NEWS

MAY REACH R. R. CASES TUESDAY

BATTLE FOR UNPAID TAXES BEFORE SUPREME COURT

DECISION WILL NOT BE FINAL

First Opinion Merely Gives Rules Which Action to Follow Must Adhere to

(By L. F. Holmes.)
MADISON, Wis., April 27.—(Special.)—A decision in the so-called railroad cases may be given in the supreme court when it comes in next Tuesday to hand down decisions. It is hardly probable, however, that the court will pass upon the questions put before it but a fortnight ago and as the questions involved are not so simple that they can be easily settled by the court it is believed the findings will not be handed down at next week's sitting. The decision, when it does come, will not dispose of the cases by any means, but will simply fix the scope of the action which the state must then proceed to prosecute in the lower court. Eventually the cases will probably come before the state's highest tribunal again for final adjudication.

Roads Test Law.

The cases State of Wisconsin, respondent, vs. Chicago and Northwestern Railway company, and of the State of Wisconsin, respondent, vs. Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway company, are companion cases to test the constitutionality of the law passed by the last legislature under which suit has been brought by the state against the railroads for alleged unpaid license fees covering a period of twenty years prior to 1904. The other railroads of the state that are parties to the action decided to await the outcome of the test suit brought by these two larger roads.

The suits were started in the fall of 1905, Attorney General L. M. Sturdevant, assisted by H. W. Chynoweth, appearing for the state, Lloyd Bowers and others for the Northwestern and Burton Hanson and others for the St. Paul. At the beginning the railroads objected to the proceedings on the grounds that the complaints were not definite enough. Judge Stevens of the Dane county circuit court, in which the actions were started, overruled the objections, but it threw cases over for another term. Then the roads introduced remurrers attacking the constitutionality of the law and raising the question of the statutes of limitations. Then they filed an affidavit of prejudice against Judge Stevens, who then called in Judge W. D. Tarrant of Milwaukee.

After the hearing on the constitutionality Judge Tarrant took the questions under advisement and in the fall of 1906 gave his decision overruling all the demurrers the two roads appealed to the supreme court. They held that all taxes prior to six years ago were barred by the statutes of limitations and that the law is unconstitutional and confiscatory. Arguments were heard last week on the question of constitutionality, whether the statute of limitations had run and other technical points.

If the court should hold that the new law is unconstitutional the state must proceed to collect under the old law. If it holds the statute of limitations has run it can collect under the license fee law only for six years prior to 1904.

May Collect Huge Sums

If the court holds the new law constitutional and the state can collect for twenty years back it is believed the state can recover many hundreds of thousands of dollars. If the state can collect for only six years back it is believed it will get many thousands, basing the estimate upon investigations made by Railroad Commissioner J. W. Thomas, who charged the roads with having made wholesale deductions in the reports through rebates, switching charges, demurrage, etc. If the new law shall stand the railroads will have to put into their answer under oath their books and accounts for twenty years. The state is anxious to be saved this work. If it must proceed under the old law the state will have to extract this evidence and information itself by putting officials on the stand and going through the books itself which would make it one of the biggest undertakings of its kind ever attempted in this line.

The railroads won a point in the suit brought against them under the law which provided a penalty of $10,000 against each road for making false reports, the court holding that an honest mistake could not furnish ground for action.

KING TALKS TO STUDENTS

RIPON, Wis., April 27.—Gen. Charles King addressed Ripon college students in chapel this afternoon, taking for his theme the American flag. He deplored the tendency of American people to treat their national colors slightly at home while even ready to defend them abroad. He said the youth of the country, especially of the west, were seemingly reluctant to show deference to their superiors through fear that such action would reflect inferiority on themselves. General King inspected Co. D here tonight. Gen. Boardman was also present, and witnessed the inspection.

Somehow, at this season of the year, when there is a circus coming, those who have kin in the circus company are not as ashamed of it as they were during the revival season in the fall.

PRISON BINDER TWINE A MINE

STATE PROPOSES TO SAVE FARMERS IMMENSE SUMS

MINNESOTA HAS DONE SO

Bill Comes Up for Final Passage in the Legislature Next Tuesday

(By L. F. Holmes.)
MADISON, Wis., April 27.—(Special.)—Binder twine may be made by convict labor and sold to the farmers of this state.

This is the intent of a bill which has been advanced by the legislature and will come up for final passage next Tuesday. The bill proposes to establish a binding twine plant at Waupun in connection with the prison, such as is established in Minnesota. The plant at Minnesota has earned $420,000 in two years and saved the farmers $720,000. Minnesota prisoners are earning for that state $3.50 a day while Wisconsin prisoners earned but 65 cents. Twine can be furnished two cents cheaper than by the trust. So far the bill has had hard sliding but there is a possibility that it will pass.

Against Desecration
Without a word of dissent the assembly by unanimous vote went on record as disapproving of holding athletic events on Memorial day by adopting the following introduced by Mr. Ties:

"Whereas, the state and nation has set aside and designated the thirtieth day of May as a memorial day, to quietly and solemnly honor the memory of the patriotic soldiers and sailors who fought and died for the preservation of the republic and of our free institutions; and

Whereas, preparations are being made for a regatta on Lake Mendota on the approaching Memorial day, in which the crews of the University of Wisconsin and the University of Syracuse are to participate and which will be the occasion of a gala demonstration and noisy amusement, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the assembly, the senate concurring, that we most earnestly protest against such and all similar celebrations, fetes and amusements as a desecration and perversion of Memorial day and a disregard and violation of its sacred and solemn character."

Mr. Ties is an old soldier, from Green county. He explained that the resolution did not ask for a postponement of the event, but simply registered a protest against a practice growing up with reference to the day.

ODD FELLOWS MEET

FOUR HUNDRED ATTEND BIG CELEBRATION AT SPARTA—ELECT OFFICERS

SPARTA, Wis., April 27.—(Special.)—About four hundred Odd Fellows and Rebeccas, representing the lodges of Bangor, Bloomingdale, Cashton, La Crosse, Viroqua, and Sparta, and comprising the La Crosse Valley Association, met in this city yesterday, to commemorate the eighty-sixth anniversary of Oddfellowship in America and the sixth anniversary of the association. At the business meeting held at Odd Fellows hall in the forenoon, the following principal officers were elected:

President—F. M. Minchell, Viroqua.
Secretary—H. J. Suttle, Viroqua.
Treasurer—Mrs. T. C. Longwell, Sparta.

At 2 o'clock the parade, including the several lodges of the association and visiting lodges from Tomah and Black River Falls, was formed and marched to the North park and then to the Assembly hall, where the delegates were formally welcomed and an excellent program rendered. The day's events were wound out by a grand ball in the evening.

Preparations are underway for an elaborate musical comedy entitled "Her Husband's Uncle," to be given here May 8, for the benefit of the Episcopal church. The cast will include such well known local talent as Charles P. Trux, S. R. Burroughs, F. E. Palmer, Andrew Ryan, Major R. A. Richards, Mrs. Harris, Miss Belle Moffatt, and Miss Laura Kyle.

THREE VOTES WON BY ESCH

MADISON, Wis., April 27.—In the senatorial contest the net results of the week may be summarized in a gain of three votes for Congressman Esch, while on the surface the other leading candidates have practically held their forces intact. Senator Hagemaster and Assemblymen Goldsworthy and Marquardt have joined the Esch camp, giving him a total of twenty-one votes when all his forces are present at the joint session and caucuses. Cooper ends the week with a loss of one vote, while Stephenson, Hatten and Lenroot show their strength to be unbroken up to this time.

MOST POPULAR GIRL

APPLETON, Wis., April 27.—Miss Clarence Todd of Menomonie, Mich., won the Lawrence university popularity contest, which closed this afternoon after the boys of the college had been given three weeks in which to vote for the most popular "co-ed" in school. Miss Lorraine Black of Green Bay was second, and Miss Nettie Norton of Columbus, received the third greatest number of votes. All three girls are members of the sophomore class.

CHEAP ALCOHOL FROM POTATOES

IMPORTANT IMPROVEMENTS BEGUN IN AGRICULTURAL

WISCONSIN A POTATO STATE

Promising Results Indicate That Great New Industry Is in Store.

MADISON, Wis., April 27.—The problem of the production of sufficient raw material to make the manufacture of cheap alcohol possible will be solved by the horticulture department of the University of Wisconsin agricultural college if the experiments in growing potatoes just begun prove successful. The department has received three barrels of new varieties of potatoes from Germany, which are said to yield from 300 to 500 bushels an acre. They are too coarse for culinary purposes, but as the can be made to produce quantities of starch and alcohol, they possess large commercial possibilities. When it is proved that they can be successfully grown in Wisconsin, and that the yield is equal to that accredited to the new varieties, then the great difficulty in the way of the production of cheap alcohol for fuel purposes will be gone. Hitherto the greatest problem in the manufacture of alcohol has been that of obtaining sufficient quantities of raw material at prices low enough to make the manufacture worth the while.

As Wisconsin is one of the leading potato producing states of the union, there appears to be no reason why the new varieties should not do well here and produce as large crops as in Germany, where they are used for alcohol manufacture. Extensive experiments are to be carried on this summer by the horticulture department of the university on the various experimental farms and on the farms of members of the Wisconsin Agricultural Experiment association, especially in the region about Waupaca, the center of the potato growing district. As starch factories are already established in several parts of the state, equipped with sufficient steam supply for alcohol distillery purposes, the process of alcohol manufacture would entail but little additional expenditure. As cheap alcohol for fuel purposes would be an inestimable boon both to farmers and to manufacturers, the results of these experiments are being anticipated with great interest.

The couple, it is understood resided in La Crosse for several years.

TO ENLARGE BELOIT

Trustees Decide that Extensions Are Necessary

BELOIT, Wis., April 27.—The meeting of the Beloit college trustees at the Union League club in Chicago yesterday, was largely attended and much interest and enthusiasm was manifested. President E. D. Eaton was in attendance, as was Horace White of New York. The most important announcement is that the raising of the new endowment is already taking on substantial proportions. Preparations were made for the expected enlarged attendance in the fall necessitating some rebuilding and enlarging of college property. The academy will be continued.

What Newbro's Herpicide

has done for others it may do for you

CLARENCE HAMILTON.

"Enclosed you will find a recent photograph of myself, showing the growth of my hair since beginning the use of your Herpicide. Before using Herpicide, the top of my head was completely bald, but the use of only two bottles has brought a new growth of hair. I had spent between $50 and $50 on other remedies, but failed to derive any benefit until using your Herpicide. I cannot commend this remedy too highly to any with dandruff, baldness or falling hair." (Signed) CLARENCE HAMILTON, Atlanta Police Department, Atlanta, Georgia.

WHILE CHRONIC BALDNESS is incurable, many cases of primary or incipient baldness have been completely cured with Newbro's Herpicide, the original remedy that kills the dandruff germ. Of course, the rational plan is to save the hair while there is hair to save, but even after it is gone there is a "fighting chance" if the hair follicles are not atrophied. Herpicide stops itching of the scalp instantly.

Two sizes, 50c and $1.00. At Drug Stores. Send 10c in stamps to the Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. for a sample. Guaranteed under the Food and Drugs Act June 30, 1906. Serial No. 915.

WINDOW SMASHER KNOWN HERE, DEAD

MARIE RICKS WANDERS TO ANOKA AND EXPIRES.

CRASHING PANES SOOTH HER

Pathetic Story of Mind Unbalanced
By Love Affair Is Concluded in Death of Character.

Maria Sweeney, alias Maria Ricks,
the window smasher, is dead.

Maria Sweeney, who for the past ten years has been making a circuit of the northwestern cities, and is known to the police and poor commissioners in every town has smashed her last window. She passed away at Anoka, Minn., several days ago, the news just reaching La Crosse authorities today.

Maria worked the window breaking stunt and was in jail here as well as elsewhere, asserting that the noise of crashing glass had a soothing effect upon her nerves.

At one time the unfortunate window smasher was one of the ablest and most intelligent teachers in the state. An unfortunate love affair is said to have unseated her reason, and since that time she has been demented.
She took to the use of morphine to help her forget her troubles, and since went from bad to worse. It is thought that her mania for smashing windows is due to morphine.

About a week ago she arrived at Anoka, but was too weak and ill to travel from place to place. She was taken care of there by the authorities until her death.

Science has worked many marvels for the

was known for old-fashioned headaches, nervousness, stomach trouble and other ills that human flesh is heir to, but they are now traced to defects of the eyes. Exhausting cause of these ills, but by relieving the eye

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS

Cheap Substitutes and
"Just As Good As."

Unscrupulous dealers, mindful only of profit and caring nothing for the health of their patrons, are offering for sale low-grade, impure whiskey, which they tell you is "good as Duffy's."

It is a cheap concoction and fraud, intended to deceive the people.
Of course, when a remedy has been before the public so long, has been prescribed and used by the best doctors and in all the prominent hospitals, and has carried the blessing of health into so many thousands of homes as DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY has, imitations are bound to arise. But they can imitate the bottle and label only—no one can imitate the contents.

DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY is made from a formula worked out fifty years ago by one of the greatest chemists the world has ever known, and while it has cured millions of people during the last half century, the secret has never been discovered.

Any firm that will sell imitation or substitution goods will sell impure drugs. The firm that is dishonest in one thing would not hesitate to be dishonest in another.
Whenever you see imitation and substitution goods offered for sale by a firm, beware of anything and everything put up by that firm. You endanger your own life and the lives of your family and friends by dealing with them.

BEWARE OF FRAUDS!

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is sold in sealed bottles only—never in bulk. A facsimile of the genuine bottle, full size, is printed here so that you may easily recognize it. It is our own patented bottle—round, amber colored, and with the name "Duffy's Malt Whiskey Company" blown into the glass. The trademark—the Old Chemist's Head—is on the label, and over the cork there is an engraved paper seal. Be certain this seal is not broken.

REFUSE IMITATIONS AND SUBSTITUTES

When you ask for
DUFFY'S PURE
MALT WHISKEY be sure you get the genuine
which is the only absolutely pure malt whiskey
containing medicinal,
health-giving qualities.
Imitations and substitutes, far from relieving the sick, are positively harmful. Demand DUF-FY'S, and be sure you get it. Be on your guard against refilled bottles.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey promotes health and longevity,

KEEPS THE OLD YOUNG—THE YOUNG STRONG

Theatrical Mechanical Association Is Rapidly Growing in
This City.

At the evening service to be held at the English Lutheran church corner West Avenue and Ferry street, tomorrow evening, the Rev. J. J.
Clemens, who has just returned from attending three conventions at St.
Paul, will present an especially interesting feature. He will give an exhibition of the stereopticon views from "Pictoreland."

These pictures are taken from one of the primary grades of the graded system used in the English Lutheran churches of the general council.
They are all bible scenes, copies of famous paintings. These views were exhibited at the Sunday school convention recently held at St. Paul.

All of the hymns to be sung at this interesting service will be illustrated by beautiful stereopticon views.

At the regular morning service,
the Rev. Clemens will give reports of the recent meeting of the Central conference.

Rev. M. J. A. Contlee of t. Hope, was the guest of Rev. Ambrose Murphy in La Crosse yesterday.

A special meeting of the Theatrical Mechanical Association, which was organized in La Crosse Feb. 14th, and embraces some of La Crosse's best known actors, was held this morning at the lodge rooms of the order on South Third street for the purpose of initiating a class of new members.

Since its organization when a start was made with only fourteen charter members the new lodge has grown so that there are now over forty regular members, and a number of applications are now being considered.

The Theatrical Mechanical association is a fraternal order which has branches in all of the larger cities of the country, and embraces almost every actor and actress on the American stage. It is not a union of stage employees as the name implies, but a fraternal and social organization, having very much the same induc-ments as an ordinary lodge. Only members of the profession are eligible to membership.

A smoker will be given for members and their friends at the lodge hall next Friday evening.

The new officers of the La Crosse
lodge are as follows:

President—R. W. Emery.

Recording secretary—Charles Larson.

Sergeant-at-arms—W. B. Bucknam.

Marshall—Charles A. Larson.

Physician—Dr. J. Reese.

"That house I have taken from you," said the dissatisfied tenant, "is horribly draughty. When I am sitting in the middle of the room my hair blows all over my head. Can't you do something for the windows?"

"Don't you think, sir," replied the house-agent, snavely, "it would be easier and cheaper for you to get your hair cut?"

AROUND THE CIRCUIT

league this season. Big Tom Letcher is confident that he has a bunch of winners at his back, and as he is up to snuff at placing the dope when it comes to baseball matters, his word has generally been accepted as law. For the first game of the year Letcher will make use of the following men:

Pitchers—Ames, Pleasants and Fuchell.
Catcher—Spicer.
First base—Ruffner.
Second base—Nelson.
Short-stop—Delsel.
Third base—Snider and Emerling.
Center field—Rogers.
Left field—Gardner.
Reserves—Dammon, Smith and Koons.

FREEPORT, Ill., April 27.—The minds of the skeptic fans, who thought that Warhop and Stark would not report here for the coming season, can now rest at ease, as both men came to town today from Austin, Texas, and both are in the pink of condition. These men are ready to get in the game, for they have had two months of strenuous work and are looking fine and feeling fancy.

First Baseman Signed.
First Baseman Elide, of Lee, Ill., reported yesterday afternoon, and if all reports are true of this fellow the fans need have no fear of not having a good man to fill the bill. Elide is six feet tall and weighs 195 pounds and has the earmarks of an athlete. Elide has played ball on independent teams around Chicago and in the central part of the state. Last Sunday he played with the Aurora team, getting one hit and twelve put-outs. Aurora is after him to play ball there the coming season, but he would rather get into league company and so will be given a tryout here. There is no question about him delivering the goods.

EAU CLAIRE, Wis., April 27.—Three good men, one of them said to be a find, blew in yesterday from several points of the compass.

The find is held out to be a big mitt man turned over to Eau Claire by Manager Grant of South Bend, Ind. His name is Watson. He will reach the city either today or tomorrow.

Catcher McGarry's brother is also here from St. Paul to try out as a pitcher. He will be out today and so will Watson if he arrives in time.

Last, but not least, is "Tumbler" Knutson, a precocious second baseman from Montana. He is reported to be good stuff, having played with the famous Peepel of Elgin.

Manager Letcher of Fond du Lac has released Pitcher Rice, Catcher Kinsella and Outfielder Nyrt.

Oshkosh is reported to have a strong club. Some line can be secured on this team and Fond du Lac, when the two come together at Oshkosh tomorrow afternoon.

STRANGE PRICE FOR TEETH.

COLUMBUS, O., April 27.—Fixing a price of $3 on a kps, Miss Cora Wilson, 20 years old, a pretty housemaid, asked for the arrest of Dr. R. B. Cochran, a dentist. She claims that she went to Cochran's office to have a set of false teeth made, and that the dentist helped himself to three kisses. She could offer no resistance, she says, as she was lying on the chair.

Dr. Cochran fitted her up with false teeth, and Miss Wilson made part payment on them, giving him $11. The bill was $20. A week later, she says, he called her to his office by telephone and demanded the remaining $9. She refused to pay him, claiming that, as he had stolen three kisses, they were square. Then, she claims, he took the false teeth from her mouth by force.

Dr. Cochran denied having kissed her even once.

BITTEN BY SNAKE

MONROE, La., April 27.—Benjamin Harris, star outfielder of the Rayville baseball team, made a marvelous catch of a fly ball from the bat of one of the players from Lake Providence, saving the game and considerable money, but the feat cost him his right leg, while reports are not too encouraging for the life of the unfortunate fielder, who had to run into a bayou skirting the outfield.

Harris was carried off on the shoulders of his admirers, after wading out, but his leg swelled to twice its normal size and amputation was necessary.

According to the doctor he was bitten by a deadly moccasin. Harris does not remember any pain, so incident was he on catching the ball.

How to Avoid Appendicitis

Most victims of appendicitis are those who are habitually constipated. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. O. T. Erhart.

STYLE TO DRINK
AMERICAN WINE

FASHION OF FOREIGN CHAMPAGNE IS DYING OUT

HOME PRODUCT IS AS GOOD

French Vintage Not Now Essential to Excellence in "the Grape"

(By J. C. Welliver.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 27.—(Special.)—It is getting to be fashionable these days to drink American made champagne. One does not necessarily any longer drink the imported product. This country not only can make as good champagne as France and other European countries but it is doing it right along and to an extent that is rapidly growing.

A statement of the bureau of statistics deals in an entertaining way with the decrease in champagne imports and the increase in the domestic production. The importations of champagne are steadily falling off and this is due, according to the bureau of statistics to the fact that more than 2,000,000 bottles of genuine champagne wine is now produced annually in the United States. The importations of champagne in the calendar year 1906 fell 81,444 quarts below the imports of 1905, while for the nine months ending with March, 1907, the falling off was 165,612 quarts compared with the corresponding months of the preceding year. The single month of March, 1907, showed a decrease of 31,920 quarts compared with March, 1906.

Imports Decrease

A comparison of the figures of 1906 with those of several years earlier shows that the champagne importations of 1906 were but 27 per cent greater than those of the year 1900, while the importation of all articles classed as luxuries in 1906 was practically 55 per cent greater than that of 1900 and the importation of general merchandise was 60 per cent, indicating that importation of champagne had not kept pace with that of other luxuries or the great group of articles forming the total imports into the United States in the period from 1900 to 1906.

This falling off in the importation of champagne has led to much correspondence between the bureau of statistics and a large number of persons engaged in the importation and sale of foreign champagne, or in the production and sale of American wine of this character. This correspondence seems clearly to indicate that the manufacture of genuine champagne wine in the United States has quadrupled in the last decade, that the product now exceeds 2,000,000 bottles per annum, including in this class only the wine fermented in the bottle and not that charged with carbonic-acid gas by artificial methods, and that this increase in home production is the principal cause of the slow growth in importation. The correspondence also indicates that the number of American producers of champagne has quadrupled in recent years and that the quantity produced has more than quadrupled within a decade.

Certain manufacturers who have given the subject careful attention estimate the production of American champagne fermented in the bottle is as high as 3,000,000 bottles. In addition to this, large quantities of sparkling wines, which are rendered effervescent by being artificially charged with carbonic-acid, are also put on the market.

New York Leads Production

New York state is by far the largest producer of American champagne, the industry in that state being chiefly in Orange county, in the southeastern part of the state, and Steuben county, in the western section of the state. A consensus of estimates by the producers and dealers indicates that probably two-thirds of the American champagnes of the genuine or fermented in the bottle variety, is produced in New York state, the other one-third being produced chiefly in northern Ohio, Missouri and California. RHEUMATICS

Noted Physician Tells How to Prevent and Cure Rheumatism, Kidney and Bladder Troubles.

(By George Edmund Flood, M. D.)
If you would avoid Rheumatism and Kidney and Bladder Troubles be moderate in the consumption of heavy, rich foods, substitute as far as possible soups, broths, fresh milk, and drink water—lots of water. Take plenty of time to eat, and don't eat after you have had enough, even if it does taste good. If your work is confining take a moderate amount of exercise each day in the open air.

Of course, neither diet, water, rest, nor exercise will cure these afflictions. I advise them as preventives only. For the benefit of the readers of this article who are now afflicted with Rheumatism, Kidney, Bladder or Urinary trouble, and desire to be cured quickly, I give below, complete in every detail, the famous prescription which has made me so successful in the treatment of these diseases. It is the most certain cure for these diseases that I have ever used. It is pleasant to take, it is not expensive, it can be filled by any druggist, and I believe it is the greatest prescription for Rheumatism, Kidney and Bladder Trouble ever written. It is also a valuable spring tonic and blood purifier. If you are a sufferer, save this, take it to your druggist and have it filled, or get the ingredients and mix them at home: Fluid Extract Cascara Aromatic, 1/2 ounce; Concentrated Bark-ola Compound, 1 ounce; Fluid Extract Prickly Ash Bark 1/2 drachm; Aromatic Elixir, 4 ounces.

Adult dose, take one teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime; children, one-fourth to one-half teaspoonful after meals.

After you are cured follow the advice I have given you in regard to diet, exercise and water, and you will not need the services of a physician again for these ailments. Other papers are privileged to copy.

tions are suited to the production of champagne is estimated as sufficiently large to make possible an enormous increase in production, the growth being at present limited by the fact that large sums of capital are required for its successful and profitable production.

The almost uniform expression of opinion of experts, whether importers or otherwise, is that the American product compares favorably with that produced in other countries and is steadily improving in quality with the increased experience of American producers.

The importation of champagne in 1906 was 394,727 dozen quarts. The American production is estimated at about half this. In other words, about one-half of the genuine champagne wine used in this country of domestic production and the proportion which the home product forms of the total is rapidly increasing.

SHOOTS INTO CHARIVARI

ALBIA, Ia., April 27.—Thirty-three boys and girls engaged in serenading a wedding at Lovilla, last night, were shot by G. W. Wilson, the bride's father, who emptied a double barreled shotgun, charged with buckshot, into the crowd.

Wilson is under arrest on the charge of attempted murder. Three of his victims are seriously wounded. They are:

Arthur James, shot in the eye; not expected to recover.
Edward McFall, shot in the shoulder; condition serious, but will recover.

Edward Morrissey, shot in neck; in dangerous condition.
Wilson is a retired farmer, and well off. Last evening his daughter, Grace, aged 18, was married to Earl Porter, aged 19.

Hardly had the wedding ceremony been pronounced than a crowd of forty boys and girls surrounded the house, beating on tin cans, ringing bells and blowing horns.
Wilson and the bride and groom took the charivari good naturedly, the old man going out to the serenaders and passing around ice cream and cake in generous quantities. The boys and girls then dispersed.

In the meantime the bride and groom had departed on their wedding trip and the other members of the family retired. An hour later the party returned again and began throwing stones and bricks at the house. Then a window was smashed.

Suddenly Wilson appeared at a window on the second floor with a shotgun and began firing into the crowd, which rapidly dispersed, the girls shrieking. Two of them fainted. Five were left lying on the ground when Wilson closed the window, the three wounded boys and the two girls who had fainted when they were shot.

The serenading party immediately returned when they saw what had happened, and the girls were revived by liberal applications of water. The three injured boys were taken to the home of a physician, where their wounds were dressed. James probably will be blind if he recovers.

Wilson was arrested this morning and brought to Albion. When arraigned he pleaded not guilty. He claims that the shooting was accidental and in self-defense and that he did not intend to hit any one, but simply was trying to frighten the crowd away. He said that he feared that the boys would kill himself and his wife and that one of the bricks hurled at his house had crashed through a window and nearly killed his wife. He also claims that he heard members of the party make threats to do him up.

The bride and groom were hastily summoned to return, and today Wilson and his son-in-law kept close guard of the Wilson home for fear of possible violence.

Mr. S. L. Bowen, of Wayne, W. Va., writes: "I was a sufferer from kidney disease, so that at times I could not get out of bed, and when I did I could not stand straight. I took Foley's Kidney Cure. One dollar bottle and part of the second cured me entirely." Foley's Kidney Cure works wonders where others are total failures. O. T. Erhart.

SPOTLIGHTS

The management of the great Hickman-Bessey company at the La Crosse theater for one week commencing next Monday, will no doubt prove an event in theatricals.

This company comes highly recommended by both the press and public. Messrs. Hickman and Bessey have had their attraction before the public for the past eight consecutive years and have as yet to receive their first adverse criticism.

They call themselves the sobriquet, "the play-goer's true friend," and have the reputation of always giving their patrons all and even more than they advertise. Ladies free first night, usual conditions.

The Flints
Of all funny shows, of all the comedies, of all the dramas, of all the tragedies, the performance of the Flints at the La Crosse theater this week is creating more interest, more study, more laughter, more heart interest, than any and all put together. It is a wonderful demonstration of magnetism and suggestion and the center of interest circles around that.

The usual large audiences are seen night after night, so be one of them and make merry and enjoy the laughs which are dispensed with a lavish hand. The weird, entrancing and unique performance closes Sunday night, so don't fail to be one of the many to enjoy the good things of life by witnessing the performance of the Flints.

Property of Socialistic Community Is Ordered Sold to Pay Debts

Judge Joyner of the Skagit county court yesterday issued an order that its property be sold to pay the debts. The property consists of 600 acres of land, sawmill, printing plant and twenty dwellings. The colony was established by a national organization known as the Brotherhood of the Co-operative Commonwealth, of which many prominent socialists were members.

SOCIETY

MANY PLEASANT AFFAIRS

THIS WEEK

The social pleasures of the week have been varied and exceptionally pleasant. Among the larger affairs the reception given by Mrs. Edward Evans and Mrs. J. J. Esch at the home of the former. The 5 o'clock tea given by Mrs. Van Auker, Mrs. Foddard and Mrs. Allen for Mrs. Listman were all charming affairs. There were also many delightful informals and quite a number of people, old and young, celebrated their birthdays this week.

Society is looking forward to a gay season with the opening of the Echaghtcoke Country club. Although the opening of the regular season cannot be announced just yet some of the young people are playing an occasional game of golf on the links. The water did some damage to the links by freezing, but they are being put in first class order in readiness for play. An enlarged porch is also being added to the club house.

CHAFING DISH LUNCH

The young people of the First Methodist church had a delightful chafing dish lunch in the church parlors last evening. Six tables each furnished with a chafing dish and presided over by a hostess, were scattered through the rooms. The hostesses were Misses Helen Lavake, Viola Haefner, Catherine Kinnison, Lulu Page, Sadie McCann and Ruth Vance. All the persons seated at the tables assisted in the cooking and a varied menu was served. A good program was also enjoyed. About sixty people were present.

FIVE HUNDRED CLUB ENTERTAINED WEDNESDAY

Mrs. S. B. Oatman, 1127 Main street, entertained the Wednesday Afternoon Five Hundred club this week. Although the weather was stormy and rainy, good cheer reigned inside. The decorations were very pretty, a large Japanese umbrella being suspended from the ceiling and at each plate was a tiny Japanese umbrella which the guests kept as a souvenir. Shaded red lights cast a cheery glow over the table. Supper was served at 6 o'clock to the eighteen guests. Mrs. John Palmer and Mrs. Winslow were the prize winners.

FRIDAY RECEPTION WEEK'S LEADING SOCIAL EVENT

The delightful afternoon reception Friday afternoon at the home of Dr. Edward Evans at which Mrs. John J. Esch and Mrs. Evans were hostesses was the week's event. Nearly three hundred invitations were extended which were quite generally accepted. Many chic toilets and handsome millinery was in evidence. The house was prettily decorated with spring blossoms and ferns. In the dining room the color scheme was yellow. A large bowl of yellow tulips centered the table and silver candelabras at each end of the table covered with shades of a corresponding color. Mrs. E. R. Shirley and Mrs. John Dengler were in charge of the reception room. Mrs. W. B. Tscharnier poured the coffee and Mrs. C. A. Smith served the salad. They were assisted by the Misses Loretta Cummings, Frances Hayes and Eleanor Funk. Ice cream and cake were served in the library by Mrs. J. E. McConnell assisted by the Misses Agnes Hayes, Helen and Irene Esch. Mrs. Frank Funke served punch assisted by the Misses Ruth Vance, Jeanette Candrian and Mary Evans. Little Miss Ruth Esch attended the door and the Misses Edna Shirley and Marie Esch assisted the guests in disposing of their wraps and attending to their comfort.

SLOANE-BARRETT WEDDING COMES AS A SURPRISE

There was a pretty home wedding Monday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Sloane on Pine street, when their son, Earl G. Sloane, was united in marriage to Miss Lillian M. Barrett of Chippewa Falls, the Rev. J. S. Lowe officiating. The affair came as a surprise to many of the guests who had been invited to spend a social evening. The guest of honor was not on hand to welcome the guests, which was thought a little strange, so to fill in the time Mrs. Lowe was asked to give them some music. After a short prelude the wedding march was struck up and before the company could grasp the meaning the wedding party preceded by Rev. Lowe entered the parlor and took their positions and the marriage lines were read to the astonishment of the assembled guests. Miss Rose Barrett of Chippewa Falls was maid of honor and William Torrance best man. The bride looked charming in a dainty gown of white silk trimmed with real lace. She carried a bunch of white carnations. Miss Rose Barrett wore a fancy white waist and light blue skirt. After congratulations a four course dinner was served. The decorations in the dining room were red carnations relieved by masses of green foliage. The place cards were hand painted, the work of the bride. Each guest was presented with a souvenir box of wedding cake "to dream over." Mr. and Mrs. Sloane will reside for the present at 626 Pine street. Mr. Sloane is ticket agent for the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad.

The guests present were Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Conley of Minneapolis, Mrs. E. J. Barrett, the Misses Selma and Rose Barrett, mother and sisters of the bride, of Chippewa Falls, Messrs. and Mesdames F. C. Lampman, C. L. Alleman, Harry L. Runge, Willis R. Bigelow, Mrs. M. E. Mosher, Mrs. J. "There's a Reason"

HAS UNCLE SAM OUTGROWN ARMY

ARMY OFFICERS ARE OF THE OPINION HE HAS

WANT 40 PER CENT INCREASE

Military Leaders Would Have Standing Army Increased to 100,000

(By J. C. Welliver.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 27.—(Special)—The United States appears to have outgrown its army. At least, this is the complaint sounded by army officers, particularly by members of the general staff, who make it their business to keep in touch with these matters. It is quite likely the war department will ask congress next session for authority to increase the army materially.

The present available force of the United States standing army amounts in round numbers to 60,000 men. The general staff would like to increase this number to 100,000, thus adding 40,000 men to the present strength. Some of the army officers are sanguine that congress would consent to this increase but others, with probably a minuter knowledge of how congress works and how public sentiment will affect it, would be well satisfied with an increase of 20,000 troops.

At any rate, the army is now so small that it will hardly go around and meet all the demands on it in the United States proper, in the Philippines, in Cuba, in Hawaii and in Alaska.

About 18,000 men are in the coast artillery force. There are nearly 6,000 in Cuba, a regiment in Alaska and a battalion in the Hawaiian islands. The Philippines have between 11,000 and 12,000 men. This leaves only about 20,000 mobile troops for the United States proper, to be scattered about at a multitude of posts. General staff officers say this number is too low. Just at present, the war department is planning on replacing about 9,000 of the troops in the Philippines with fresh troops and withdrawing with fresh troops from this country. It will be difficult to do this and send over regiments and organizations that have not themselves had recent Philippine service.

Then, too, the work of co-operating with the national guard of the country in summer camps, designed for the benefit both of the guard and the regular army, is hampered by the fewness of the troops.

Last summer, brigade camps and maneuvers were held in a number of parts of the country, almost the entire mobile part of the army in the United States participating and the national guard organizations taking part in them. This year, state camps for the guard only will be possible. The only exception will be in the case of the joint maneuvers on the North Atlantic coast between the coast artillery and the militia. The regular army will send small bodies of well-trained men under efficient officers to the various state guard camps in order to assist in the proper training of the militia, but no efforts will be made to join with the national guard in brigade camps after the fashion of last summer.

Wages are too good and work plentiful to make any large percentage of the desirable part of the population willing to join the army for the pay of Uncle Sam. In case a regiment or organization is about to go to the Philippines, then it is found easy enough by recruiting officers to find plenty of active, venturesome young men who want to see the world and are ready to take a trip to the orient, and remain there two or three years. But when it comes to enlisting for other service than this, it is extremely difficult. Times have to be hard or at least much less prosperous than at present to make it easy.

BADLY AFFLICTED WITH ECZEMA

For More Than Two Years—Tries Physicians, Patent Remedies, Old Women and Quack Cures and Found No Relief.

USES CUTICURA AND IS SOON SOUND AND WELL

"I was very badly afflicted with eczema for more than two years. The parts affected were my limbs below the knees. I tried all the physicians in the town and some in the surrounding towns, and I also tried all the patent remedies that I heard of, besides all the cures advised by old women and quacks, and found no relief whatever until I commenced using the Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment, and Cuticura Resolvent. In the Cuticura Remedies I found immediate relief, and was soon sound and well. C. V. Beltz, Tippecanoe, Ind., Nov. 15, '05."

DANDRUFF KILLS HAIR

Cuticura Soap Kills Dandruff

"I was troubled with dandruff on my head ever since I was twelve years old. I had beautiful hair up to that time. The dandruff destroyed my hair. I tried everything I could hear of. I had no doctor, but I went into a drug store where I was well acquainted and asked the druggist if he knew of anything that would be good for me. He said: 'Of course I do. Just get a cake of Cuticura Soap.' I got it, and it did my hair good the first time I used it. My sister-in-law couldn't keep the dandruff off the top of her baby's head, and the hair wouldn't grow. I was there, had a cake of Cuticura Soap with me. I told her about it, and gave her the Cuticura Soap, and in about three months I went there again, and the child's head was covered with hair and not a sign of dandruff. My sister said it was the Cuticura Soap. The child is not past three years old and has a lovely head of hair. Mrs. E. W. Shigley, Columbus, Kan., Oct. 25, 1905."

Complete External and Internal Treatment for Every Humour of Infants, Children, and Adults consists of Cuticura Soap (25c) to Cleanse the Skin, Cuticura Ointment (50c) to Heal the Skin, and Cuticura Resolvent (50c), (in the form of Chocolate Coated Pills 25c per box of 50) to Purify the Blood. Sold throughout the world. Foster Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston, Mass.

STAVRUM & HULBERGTHE COMING OF REV. FATHER QUILL

PASTOR WHO PRESIDES WITH JUDGE IN JUVENILE COURT.

TO BE AT LA CROSSE THEATER

Entertaining and Helpful Discussion of Childhood by an Authority.

"I do not want to be booked as a lecturer nor regarded as one, but simply ask the opportunity of presenting my message from the neglected little ones to thinking men and women."

That is an extract from a letter written by Rev. Father Quill to a gentleman in this city with whom he was discussing his forthcoming appearance at the La Crosse theater, booked for May 6th.

The coming of Father Quill, who for years has sat on the bench beside the judge in the Chicago juvenile court that presides over the most congested district in that city of waifs, is described by La Crosse people who have heard him talk as a convincing speaker, entertaining in an inimitable style, and fortified with fact and anecdote in a way to make his talks delightful and helpful. Speaking of his coming to Wisconsin, City Editor Hill, of the Winona Republican and Herald, says:

"Rev. Father Quill is known to a great many, as he has spent no little time and money caring for the children who are brought into the juvenile court in the great city of Chicago. He is giving his entire time to the unfortunate young of this day and has established a home at his own expense in Chicago, to which he takes the children from the court and cares for them until he succeeds in placing them in good families. He sits on the bench with the judge of the court and is therefore familiar with all the details.

"His great scope of knowledge regarding the neglected child is given in his lecture which people will have the opportunity of hearing soon. He is a most interesting speaker and those who have had the pleasure of hearing him speak in the highest terms of his lecture. Rev. Father Quill will give a lecture in La Crosse on the same subject, and may also speak at Rochester the same week."

The coming of Father Quill to La Crosse is expected to be warmly appreciated. His address will be announced from all churches of all faiths and denominations. His talk is not for creeds, but for parents and for all who have interest in learning what to do that childhood may be devoted to making the right kind of men and women.

PLANS FOR PARK MEET APPROVAL

HANDSOME BRIDGE OVER THE CENTRAL LAGOON

DREDGE OUT BATHING BEACH

Fresh Water Supply Will Be Regulated by Sluiceway Provided Mr. Pettibone Approves Arrangement

Plans submitted by City Engineer Woods for the improvement of Pettibone park, were approved last evening by the three committees in meeting to consider the matter. Those present were Mayor Anderson, Geo. H. Ray, the members of the bridge committee, Aldermen Grover and Muenzenberger, members of the finance committee, Aldermen Keller, Bartl and Emery, and members of the bath house committee, Aldermen Bedessem and Vollmar.

The plans of the city engineer provide for a steel and cement bridge to be built over the lagoon at the park, to cost in the neighborhood of $6,000. This is to replace the old wooden structure now in use. The bridge will be 110 feet long to be built of steel and re-enforced cement, the metal to be covered. It will have five spans and a brick roadway, the balustrades to be of cement.

In connection with the discussion over the bridge plans the meeting considered the proposition of improving the conditions at the public bath. It is the plan to swing the bath house in a parallel position with the roadway, also to dredge out a sloping beach to the south. The sand from this will be used in making the approaches to the bridge. A canal from the main river, starting from a point south of the bathing beach is also planned, to give a fresh flow of water. The outcome of these plans depend on the attitude of A. W. Pettibone. Mr. Ray stated to the committee that Mr. Pettibone would sanction the improvements, provided that positive assurance could be given that the canal would not be detrimental to the island, the government engineers having stated that it might have a tendency to wash away a part of it. City Engineer Woods explained that a sluiceway with a gate would control the flow. Mayor Anderson and City Engineer Woods will take up the matter with Mr. Pettibone.

The coming of Father Quill to La Crosse is expected to be warmly appreciated. His address will be announced from all churches of all faiths and denominations. His talk is not for creeds, but for parents and for all who have interest in learning what to do that childhood may be devoted to making the right kind of men and women.

RABIES AT VIOLA

HENRY BENN TAKEN TO PASTEUR INSTITUTE FOR TREATMENT

Henry Benn of Viola went to the Pasteur institute at Chicago to receive treatment for rabies. Mr. Benn was bitten by his dog during the latter part of January and his dog was later found to be effected and was killed. Later one of the horses was found to be affected with the disease and was killed and burned. The animal is supposed to have been bitten by the dog. Whether any other of the animals of the neighborhood were bitten has not as yet been ascertained, but a close watch is being kept and in case any of them show signs of the disease they will be killed at once.

PASTORS ARE SCANDALIZED

COLUMBUS, O., April 27.—Several of the Protestant pastors of the city regard the cloth as scandalized because the members of the congregation of the Columbus Universalist church gave to their retiring pastor, Dr. F. L. Rexford, last night a punch bowl.

Dr. Rexford resigned the pastorate two weeks ago because of friction due to failing financial support. Dr. C. S. Carr, who made the presentation speech last night, proposed that a people's church be established here, of which Dr. Rexford should be the pastor.

Dr. Rexford has been recognized for some time as the leader of the most liberal Christians here. He accepted the bowl with thanks.

The devil knew how to catch a big haul when he invented dresses that fasten up the back for the husband to hook.

DAILY MARKETS

WHEAT OPENS IN STRONG ASCENT

BULLISH MOVEMENT FORCES PRICES UP ONE CENT

PROFIT TAKERS GET BUSY

Selling Makes the Market Sag Slowly and Stubbornly to the Close

La Crosse Stock & Grain Commission Company.

CHICAGO, Ill., April 27.—The curb was rife with bull enthusiasm this morning, the continuation of dry weather with strong cables the prices were bid up steadily until they were fully a cent above yesterday's close. Profit garnering began when that point was attained, however, and prices fell back a fraction before the opening gong rang. The opening was strong and high but the early buyers all wanted profits and the market sagged gradually but with a stubborn spirit. Prices closed at practically the low mark of the day.

Corn and oats opened higher with wheat but soon became weak and sold off steadily during the entire session closing at practically the lowest prices for the day.

Provisions were featureless with an occasional transaction, closing at yesterday's prices.

HOGS AND LARD DROP SLIGHTLY

OTHERWISE LOCAL MARKET PRICES ARE STEADY.

FARMERS FEAR SEED WILL ROT

Delayed Springtime Has Had Detrimental Effect in This Vicinity and in Minnesota.

The market is steady with the exception of hogs and lard. Hogs dropped to $5.80 to $6.15 and lard dropped to 10 1/2 and 11 cents per pound.

Farmers all over this vicinity have just about completed their seeding. The cold weather has been the cause of many of the farmers delaying the work for fear the seed would rot in the ground.

Seeding was resumed in the locality of Fergus Falls, Minn., after two weeks' delay on account of the cold weather. The ground has been frozen on almost constantly since the first of April, and the grain is going in about a week later than usual.

A GLIMPSE OF THE NEW Y. M. C. A. BUILDING AND WHAT THE YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION IS

It is a high-grade, low-cost Young Men's Club—Christian but non-sectarian.

It is an athletic organization that does not use men to promote athletics, but uses athletics to develop men.

It is a night school for young men that work by day.

It is a home for young men away from home.

It helps young men not only to help themselves, but to help the other fellow.

It is a place for a young man to find friends and to make himself a friend to the man that needs friends.

It has no creed, but is controlled by representatives of churches. This keeps it a Christian organization, but prevents it from becoming another Church.

Its fellowship, club-rooms, gymnasium, baths, classes and all other practical advantages are open to all young men, of all faiths or of no faith.

It is not an experiment, but is the survivor of many experiments. While other young men's organizations, social, athletic, educational, ethical and even religious, have failed, this has succeeded and is now in successful operation in over eight thousand places in North America and throughout the world.
